Private and Confidential

To: Holders of Options (the “Option Holders”) granted pursuant to the Deferred Share Bonus Plan adopted in February 2016 (the “Deferred Bonus Plan”) (the “Options”)

Dear Option Holder

Recommended cash offer for Urban&Civic plc (“Urban&Civic”) by the Wellcome Trust Limited, as trustee of the Wellcome Trust (“Wellcome”)

This letter explains the impact of the proposed acquisition of Urban&Civic by Wellcome on the Option held by you. You will need to take action in order to exercise your Option as this will not happen automatically.

1. The Acquisition

On 6 November 2020, the board of directors of Urban&Civic and Wellcome announced that they had reached agreement on the terms of a recommended all-cash offer pursuant to which Wellcome will acquire the entire issued and to be issued share capital of Urban&Civic (the “Acquisition”). The Acquisition is to be effected by way of a scheme of arrangement under Part 26 of the Companies Act 2006 (the “Scheme”). The Scheme is a Court approved process whereby, if approved by the Urban&Civic shareholders and sanctioned by the Court (“Court Sanction”) and it becomes Effective, the Acquisition will complete.

If the Acquisition becomes Effective, eligible shareholders in Urban&Civic will be entitled to receive:

345 pence (in cash) (the “Offer Price”) for each ordinary share of 20 pence each in Urban&Civic (“Urban&Civic Share”)

A copy of the circular dated 20 November 2020 containing full details of the Acquisition was sent by Urban&Civic to its shareholders in connection with the Scheme (the “Scheme Document”). The Scheme Document can be accessed at <https://www.urbanandcivic.com/>. This letter should be read in conjunction with the Scheme Document. Words and expressions defined in the Scheme Document have the same meanings when used in this letter, unless otherwise defined.

You should note that your Option remains subject to the rules of the Deferred Bonus Plan and, to the extent that your Option lapses (or has lapsed) pursuant to the rules of the Deferred Bonus Plan, the provisions of this letter (and the Proposal set out below) will not apply.

2. Timetable of the Acquisition

The current timetable is set out in full in the Scheme Document. The Court Sanction and the Effective Date are expected to occur on 15 January 2021 (“Court Sanction Date”) and 19 January 2021 respectively. Please note that these dates may be subject to change and you will be notified of any change that affects you.

3. The effect of the Scheme on your Option

Your Option has already vested and is exercisable to the extent previously notified to you by Urban&Civic in accordance with the rules of the Deferred Bonus Plan.

As a result of the Acquisition, your Option will remain exercisable until the expiry of a period of one month from the Court Sanction Date and may be exercised in accordance with this letter. To the extent that your Option remains unexercised at the end of such period, it will lapse

Your Option has a nil exercise price but, in order to exercise your Option, you are required to pay to Urban&Civic the income tax and employees’ National Insurance contributions (“Tax Liability”) arising on the exercise of your Option.

If the Scheme becomes Effective, any Urban&Civic Shares that you acquire on the exercise of your Option will be acquired by Wellcome (whether pursuant to the Scheme or otherwise) at the Offer Price.

The leaver provisions pursuant to the Deferred Bonus Plan will continue to apply if you leave Urban&Civic prior to Court Sanction Date. This means that if you cease to be an employee of the Urban&Civic Group prior to exercising your Option and do not qualify as a “good leaver” (as defined in the rules of the Deferred Bonus Plan), your Options will lapse immediately on the date of cessation of your employment.

If you hold options granted to you under a separate Urban&Civic share plan, please note that the above proposal does not apply to such options, and that you will receive a separate letter in respect of those options.

4. Proposal – Exercise of Option on Court Sanction

The proposal made to you by Wellcome (the “Proposal”) is that you agree to exercise your Option to the full extent vested (as described above) on Court Sanction by completing and returning the enclosed Form of Instruction. The exercise of your Option will be conditional upon, and become effective on, the Scheme being sanctioned by the Court. If the Scheme is so sanctioned, Urban&Civic will arrange the processing of the exercise of your Option and the issue or transfer of Urban&Civic Shares to you before the Scheme Record Time (which is the time and date specified as such in the Scheme Document, currently expected to be 6.00 p.m. (UK time) on 20 January 2021, or such later time as Wellcome and Urban&Civic may agree). These Urban&Civic Shares will subsequently be acquired by Wellcome for the Offer Price pursuant to the Scheme.

The Form of Instruction authorises and instructs Urban&Civic to withhold the Tax Liability arising in respect of the exercise of your Option, from the sale proceeds due to you from Wellcome pursuant to the Scheme.

By accepting the Proposal, you irrevocably:

1. agree to exercise your Option to the full extent vested and capable of exercise, such exercise to be conditional upon, and to take effect on, the Court Sanction;

2. agree that the Urban&Civic Shares that you acquire as a result of the exercise of your Option will be acquired by Wellcome pursuant to the Scheme;
3. authorise and instruct Wellcome to pay the aggregate Offer Price payable in respect of those Urban&Civic Shares (“Cash Consideration”) to Urban&Civic on your behalf;
4. authorise Urban&Civic to withhold from your Cash Consideration an amount equal to the Tax Liability arising as a result of exercise of your Option in order to satisfy your obligation to pay the Tax Liability in respect of your Option;
5. indemnify Urban&Civic and each of its Subsidiaries against any Tax Liability (or any equivalent tax or social security in any jurisdiction outside the United Kingdom) arising as a result of or in connection with the exercise of your Option; and
6. agree that the net amount of your Cash Consideration (after the withholdings made in accordance with sub-paragraphs 4 and 5 above) will be paid to you by Urban&Civic within 14 days following the Effective Date.

To accept the Proposal, complete the enclosed Form of Instruction and return it to Heather Williams, Company Secretary at Urban&Civic, either by:

- scanning each page of the Form of Instruction and emailing the complete Form of Instruction to heather.williams@urbanandcivic.com (with “Instruction Form” in the subject line). If you return a scanned copy by email, you should retain the original copy in a safe place; or
- if you are unable to scan the Form of Instruction, posting it to: Urban&Civic, 50 New Bond St, Mayfair, London W1S 1BJ.

If you do not complete and return the Form of Instruction in the way described by 4.00 p.m. (UK time) on 18 December 2020, you may not be able to accept the Proposal. You should not assume that any reminders will be sent to you about this deadline.

In the event that the Scheme is not sanctioned by the Court (or otherwise does not proceed), your Form of Instruction will be of no effect and your Option will continue as before, in accordance with the rules of the Deferred Bonus Plan.

5. Alternative courses of action

Exercise independently of the Proposal

If you do not wish to take advantage of the Proposal, you may in any event exercise your Option to the extent vested and capable of exercise in the normal manner, subject to and in accordance with the rules of the Deferred Bonus Plan. If you wish to exercise your Option in the usual way, you should do so before it lapses, which will be no later than one month after the Scheme is sanctioned by the Court.

If you do exercise your Option without accepting the Proposal, you should note the following:

- a) You will need to make arrangements with Urban&Civic for payment of the Tax Liability arising on the exercise of your Option.
- b) If you exercise your Option in time for your name to be entered on the Urban&Civic share register before the Scheme Record Time, the Urban&Civic Shares that you acquire on such exercise will be acquired pursuant to the Scheme (provided that the Scheme becomes Effective).
- c) If you do not exercise your Option in time for your name to be entered on the Urban&Civic share register before the Scheme Record Time, the Urban&Civic Shares that you acquire on such exercise will not be acquired pursuant to the Scheme. However, under the terms of the Scheme, the Articles of Association of Urban&Civic will be changed upon the Scheme taking effect to provide that all outstanding Urban&Civic Shares (including those acquired on the exercise of your Option) will automatically be acquired by Wellcome at a price equal to the Offer Price (regardless of the market value of Urban&Civic Shares at the time of exercise).

If you do not wish to accept the Proposal but still wish to exercise your Option, please contact Heather Williams at Urban&Civic at heather.williams@urbanandcivic.com or on +44 20 7509 5589 as soon as possible.

Do nothing

If you do nothing and do not accept the Proposal or otherwise exercise your Option, your Option will lapse in accordance with the rules of the Deferred Bonus Plan no later than one month after the Court Sanction.

6. Taxation

A general summary of the UK taxation implications of exercising your Option is set out in the Appendix to this letter. However, if you are in any doubt as to your tax position, you should seek your own independent advice from a suitably qualified and authorised independent financial adviser. None of the directors or employees of Urban&Civic or Wellcome is authorised to give independent tax or financial advice.

7. Action to be taken

In order to accept the Proposal, you must complete the enclosed Form of Instruction, ensure that it is signed in the presence of an independent witness (someone aged 18 or older and not your spouse or civil partner or a member of your immediate family) and return it to Heather Williams at the email or postal address given above along with your award certificate(s) (if available) so as to be received by no later than 4.00 p.m. (UK time) on 18 December 2020.¹

If your completed Form of Instruction is not received by Heather Williams by 4.00 p.m. (UK time) on 18 December 2020, you will be deemed not to have accepted the Proposal. While you may still be able to exercise your Option in accordance with the 'Alternative courses of action' described above, you will need to make arrangements with Urban&Civic to fund your Tax Liability.

It is important that you take action as soon as possible. If you fail to take any action, your Option will lapse in due course and cease to be of any value.

8. Further assistance

If you are in any doubt as to the course of action you should take or your tax position, you should seek your own independent advice from a suitably qualified and authorised independent financial adviser. None of the directors or employees of Urban&Civic or Wellcome is authorised to give independent tax or financial advice. Nothing in this letter constitutes financial advice to any holder of shares, share awards or share options in Urban&Civic.

If you have any query regarding the contents of this letter or the enclosed Form of Instruction not requiring the giving of financial, tax or investment advice, you should contact Heather Williams at Urban&Civic at heather.williams@urbanandcivic.com or on +44 20 7509 5589.

If you are in any doubt about the Proposal in this letter, you should consult a duly authorised independent financial adviser immediately.

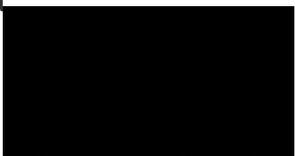

¹ Please note that if you are unable to sign this document in the presence of an independent witness due to Covid-19 (whether due to self-isolation or lockdown), a member of your family (who is 18 or older) can witness your signature.

9. Recommendation by the Urban&Civic Directors

The Board of Urban&Civic, which has been so advised by J.P. Morgan Cazenove as to the financial terms of the Proposal, consider the terms of the Proposal described in this letter to be fair and reasonable in the context of the Acquisition. In providing its advice to the Board of Urban&Civic, J.P. Morgan Cazenove has taken into account the commercial assessments of the Urban&Civic Directors. J.P. Morgan Cazenove is providing independent financial advice to the Board of Urban&Civic for the purposes of Rule 15(b) of the City Code.

APPENDIX

UK Taxation Consequences

The information contained in this Appendix is intended to provide you with a brief summary of the taxation consequences of exercising your Option (on the assumption that you were resident in the UK at the time that your Option was granted and have been so resident at all times since). The summary is provided for guidance purposes only and does not constitute tax advice to any individual Option Holder. It is not a full description of all the circumstances in which a taxation liability may occur. This Appendix is based on current UK legislation and what is understood to be current HMRC practice, both of which are subject to change, possibly with retrospective effect. If you are in any doubt as to your tax position or if at any time on or after the grant of your Option you have been resident (or otherwise taxable) outside the United Kingdom, you should consult a duly authorised independent financial adviser immediately.

1. Income Tax and National Insurance Contributions

You will be subject to income tax (at your marginal rate) and employees' National Insurance contributions ("NICs") on the exercise of your Option. The amount of such income tax and employees' NICs is determined by reference to the market value of the Urban&Civic Shares which you acquire on the exercise of your Option (which should equate to the Offer Price). Income tax and employees' NICs will be accounted for by Urban&Civic under the PAYE system.

As a condition of the exercise of your Option, you must make arrangements to reimburse Urban&Civic for all income tax and employees' NICs that arise as a result of the exercise of your Option. If you accept the Proposal, you will satisfy this obligation by authorising Urban&Civic to withhold an appropriate amount in respect of the income tax and employees' NICs due from Cash Consideration otherwise due to you in respect of the disposal of your Urban&Civic Shares pursuant to the Scheme.

If you do not accept the Proposal but exercise your Option some other way, appropriate arrangements will be made to recover the income tax and employees' NICs from you under the terms of the Deferred Bonus Plan.

2. Capital Gains Tax ("CGT")

A capital gain is calculated as the amount by which the Cash Consideration that you receive on the sale of your Urban&Civic Shares exceeds the base cost of those Urban&Civic Shares. As the base cost should equate to the Offer Price (if you exercised in accordance with the Proposal), there should be no additional gain subject to CGT.

[PLEASE LEAVE BLANK.]

The action you take with respect to your Option is a matter for you alone to decide. you are recommended to seek your own personal financial advice immediately from your stockbroker, bank manager, solicitor, accountant or other independent financial adviser authorised under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (as amended) if you are in the United Kingdom, or other appropriately authorised independent financial adviser if you are in a territory outside the United Kingdom.
